And is the Democrat so lamentably stupid as to think it can turn back this current of honest indiguation of the people, and change their condemnation of Mr Polk a administration into hearty approvals, by quoting papers of t312 in reference to the wor with Great British, lait alarmed at the effect of Mexico taking courage, only to the personal friends of McPrince but to all statics? Is the parallel between the condition joung men struggling to illuminate and develop and circumstances of Great Britain in the last war, and Mexico in the present war, so complete that what was in 1812 applicable to the former in to day applicable to the latter? Any young lad knows better than this But the ocrat goes blind for the support of Mi Polk's war, and must say something having the appearance of reason, though it be a shain and a humbug

The Hungarian Balsian is a great Expectorant

R dissolves the morbid and diseased matter in the air-passage changes it from a thick, gluinous substance, to a thin harmless fluid, and throws it off with the greatest possible ease and comfort to the patient. There is no butter needlesse in the world, it

SPASMOUIC ASIHMA Simple or Spasmodic Ashma, has no better remedy than the Hungarian Balsian. This painful and desiructive affection which resists almost every thing 'else,' yields to the all powerful influence of this great remedy, as readily as any other form of Pectoral disease.

The Hungarian Dalsand, by its utentions we trained, politicing and animaling power, produces, not shrinking but expansion.
